

God's Gotcha!

God Shepherds--The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want, Psalm 23:1

God Equips--The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Psalm 27:1

God Assures---Fret not thyself because of evil-doers. Psalm 37:1

God Protects--The angel of the LORD encamps round about them that fear him, and delivers them. Psalm 34:7

God Provides--I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. Psalm 37:25

God Intervenes--No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. Isaiah 54:17

The phonetic slang word "gotcha" derived from the colloquial grammatical expression, "I got you", to denote support, comprehension, or surprise. God has got you, became "God's gotcha"! He comprehends, understands, and protects.

Moses stuttered and Joseph was cast in a pit; Jonah hid in the bottom of a boat; Elijah ran for his life and Job lost his children. Yet these rose from the ashes of challenge to the pillars of greatness. There is no secret as to what God can do. So let no man despise you for we serve a great God. When I am down, He picks me up and dusts me off; when I am weak, He strengthens me, and when I weep, He dries my tears. So why should I worry or fret? My testimony rises and responds. God's got not only your back, but all of you.

We must challenge our minds to do those things that in our strength we cannot accomplish so that God can have room to work. Don't cramp up God and box Him in your corner. He's got the whole world in His hands. If you plan everything with your bottom line thinking and worldly logic, God can't help you. So then, put down your tiny bucket of options into the vast ocean of possibilities; roll up your sleeves and begin the task, for there is a Starter and Finisher that runs alongside, and completes the last lap in the race to the finish. Our extremity is His opportunity so let the effectual fervent pray of righteousness be your ticket to a faith that knows no end. Sing ye hills and vales, and may the happy sounds of a thousand springs and gurgling brooks join in heavenly chorus. Let the choir chant forth, and the hands of faith and prayer clap in thunderous praise. God's Gotcha. You bet bro'. God's Gotcha! He's Got the Whole World!
